Dear Season Partners and Guests,

As I sit writing this letter, I am having a truly hard time believing it is December. Not only does this mean another great year is coming to a close, but we're getting ready for another incredible season. At a meeting the other day I was reminded that it's been 15 years since my partners and I bought the Alhambra. That time has sure gone by fast and pleasantly and I'd do it all over again - and, as my daddy used to say, "and twice on Sundays." Which is funny because, well, we run a show twice on Sundays.

To the casual observer, December probably looks pretty simple: host our Christmas show, sell out all the tickets and rest easy. But the truth is, December is a busy time. While A Christmas Story is running sometimes 14 shows a week, we're also rehearsing for our first show of the year, Southern Fried Funeral, readying our New Year's Eve gala, taking thousands of holiday gift card orders, booking our our Music Series shows and putting the pieces together of our 2025 marketing plans.

It is busy and chaotic and fun and I wouldn't have it any other way. I admit - and as you can tell by the decor - Christmas is certainly my favorite time of year at the Alhambra. The Alhambra means a lot to all of us, whether you're a Season Partner, a casual guest or you work here. To me, it means I get to bring joy to 130,000 guests who come through our doors each year. I get to surround myself with some of the hardest working people in show business - administration staff, cast, set designers, and culinary staff alike.

As you make your holiday plans and your 2025 plans, I hope you'll keep the Alhambra on your list. We've got a great season coming up in 2025 for you. And a reminder that Alhambra tickets make great gifts - always the right size and color and no one ever returns them. The Alhambra is a place where we all make memories all year long, and the gift I receive each year is sharing it with you.

From all of us at the Alhambra, I wish you a merry Christmas and happy Chanukah (Christmas and Chanukah fall on the same day this year) and joy in whatever you celebrate. Have a wonderful and safe New Year and I wish you the best of all things for 2025 and beyond.

Your friend,

Craig
